BUILT AROUND
BUSINESS.

DRIVEN BY EXCELLENCE.

A leading independent law firm delivering sophisticated legal counsel to businesses, investors, government entities, and innovators across the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the wider region.

- AIOwfi & Partners is an independent Saudi law firm providing strategic legal counsel to government entities, multinational corporations, family businesses, financial institutions, technology companies, entrepreneurs, and investors across Saudi Arabia and the GCC.
- The firm was founded on a single conviction: that exceptional legal advice should create commercial value, not merely address legal risk. We combine technical rigour with genuine commercial insight to deliver practical, business-led solutions.
- Our multidisciplinary practice supports clients across every stage of the business lifecycle — from formation and investment to expansion, restructuring, dispute resolution, and succession planning.
- Whether guiding transformational transactions, navigating regulatory change, resolving complex disputes, or protecting valuable intellectual assets, our lawyers act as trusted advisers committed to our clients' long-term success.

AT A GLANCE:

- Established in 2017
- Offices in Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates
- Advising public and private sector clients
- Full-service commercial law firm
- Cross-border transaction capability
- Multidisciplinary legal practice
- Partner-led service delivery
- Advisory capability in Arabic and English

OUR APPROACH

- Legal advice should never be an obstacle to business, it should be an enabler of opportunity.
- At ALOwfi & Partners, we combine legal precision with commercial judgement, equipping our clients to make confident decisions in an increasingly complex regulatory and commercial environment.
- Our lawyers understand that every instruction carries commercial implications beyond the legal question itself. We deliver advice that balances legal protection with commercial practicality.
- We build long-term relationships by acting as an extension of our clients' businesses, providing strategic guidance that supports growth, protects investment, and manages legal risk.
